IDI Student Membership

Institute of Designers in Ireland
Institiúid Dearthóirí Eireann

Who We Are...

The Institute of Designers in Ireland is the professional body representing the interests of Irish designers. Its function is to promote high standards of design, to foster professionalism and to emphasise designers' responsibility to society, to the client and to each other.

Formed in 1972, the Institute is recognised at national, EU and international level as the representative body for the Irish design profession. Student membership is available to all students pursuing recognised courses at educational establishments throughout Ireland.

Benefits for Students

- Use of the affix SIDI
- Up-to-date news and current affairs through the Institute's newsletter
- Communication with practicing designers through our networking programme
- Access to work placements with Institute members
- Opportunities to contribute to the development of new thinking on design practice and education in Ireland
- Opportunities to develop your own student initiatives with the support of experienced professionals

Application for Membership

To apply for student membership please complete the following details and submit this form together with a cheque or postal order for your membership fee of €20/ST£14 to IDI, 8 Merrion Square, Dublin 2.
